Exclusive video of traditional fish preservation in Elmina

Fish management

As fish is left open for drying and covered at night, it should be turned regularly for uniform drying and enough sun light is given to it when drying. Dried fish is put in baskets and taken to market for selling and finally fish is sorted according to size for selling.