How To Save Tomato Seeds

Seed management

First, leave the jar in warmer area for a few days for fermentation and remove the upper material and put seed in the sieve. Rinse seeds using water, split them on kitchen paper and put it in full sun for drying for a week and put date and variety on paper and fold it and put it in poly bag.
Similarly, label the bag as well and put it in fridge and finally it can be kept for 5 years.