

Vine Pruning

Crop management

First, start pruning once vines go to fruit dormancy mainly in January and February as the later you prune, the later buds break appear. Main diseases include eutypalata, botryosphaeria, esca and trunk diseases are high during rainy season hence don't prune during rainy season.

Similarly, pruning methods include cordon-trained, spur-pruned vine and a bush from crop.

Finally, remove bush from crop.